NOVEMBER MEETING

WHEN: November 20, 1986 7:30 AM
WHERE: Gulfstream Hotel
1 Lake Avenue
Lake Worth, Florida 33460

In keeping with a PBCLA tradition we once again welcome you to our annual breakfast meeting - good food and good talk before facing another work day. This year's program is TRUE CONFESSIONS: a mini-workshop by and for the participants. Do you have a favorite reference tool, one that saves you precious time with those especially esoteric questions, a referral source that never lets you down when you need a Russian translation in a hurry, a favorite fiction book you like to recommend to searching teenagers, a tried and true source of vertical file material? We would like to have an informal sharing, a gathering of 'tricks of the trade' that could make everyone's job easier.

If you want to participate, please type your source or idea on a three by five index card to turn in at the meeting. More than one idea is always welcome. These cards will be collected after the meeting and typed into a bibliography that will be distributed at the January Meeting. So come and tell us ALL!!!!

LET'S HEAR ABOUT A UNIQUE MUSEUM IN

OUR AREA

The Henry Morrison Flagler Museum is a decorative arts museum. The opulent furnishings include paintings, porcelain, crystal, silver, costumes and textiles. The Museum also has a collection of archives. Joan Runkel, curator of the museum, noted that the collection includes the archives of the construction of the Key West Extension of the Florida East Coast Railway. Mr. Flagler's letterbooks and a four-year diary (1909-1912) of a construction engineer complete the archives collection.

The museum archives are not open to the public. Researchers may use the collection by special appointment. Please contact Ms. Runkel.
